NABR NETWORK ANNOUNCES NEW CLIENT: CREATIVE MANAGEMENT

Creative Management's new mobile and web application Creative Connect is improving communication in the associations they manage

Lewisville, Texas (March 15, 2017) –Nabr Network, the leading mobile and web communication system built specifically for community management companies and their associations, announced that Creative Management has joined their growing client list. Nabr Network is providing Creative Management and the communities they manage with a branded mobile app and web presence: Creative Connect.

The Florida-based association management company is using Creative Connect to improve communication in the associations they manage.

“Creative Management has been in business for eight years. We pride ourselves on providing individual services to each community we serve based on their needs. We are not a cookie cutter management company – we tailor our services to the community’s requirements,” said Chris Thomas, chief operating officer at Creative Management.

“The Nabr Network web and mobile application has helped us provide great service to our communities by increasing communication to our Owners and providing an easy access point for the community to obtain information in one place. Many owners especially like the mobile app.”

“Creative Management is embracing technology to bring great communication to their portfolio of associations,” remarked James Garner, vice president of business development at Nabr Network. “Creative Management offers a custom approach to each community they serve. The flexibility of Creative Connect makes it the ideal communications solution for a wide-range of community associations.”
